FRESH REMARKS ABOUT THE WEATHER .-Yesterday, though by no means "the warmest day of the season," was quite warm enough for all business purposes. We don't know how the mercury stood-it was too warm to enquire. A Nashville correspondent of the Gallatin Examiner, who writes an entertaining letter to that paper every week, says the thermometers here, having gone up as high as they could, have got ashamed of themselves and "blowed out." This is pro-

While coming down Summer Street about two o'clock, P. M. yesterday, our reporter was struck by a stream of air as hot as the hostility now existing between the two factions of the Democratic party. With the exception of a mixture of sand, it was for all the world like thej imoom which every reader of the Patriot has encountered a thousand tim s while traveling through the great deserts of Africa. It blew about long enough to blister one's face, when it considerately absided, and a feebler but more highly civilized sort of breeze temporarily set in. Such phenomena are not uncommon in brick cities built upon solid limestone; but they are always unpleasant to meet with. There ought to have been several severe ases of sun-stroke in town within the last few days, but we have heard of but one-an inebriated old gentleman, of strongly developed Irish proclivities, having been floored by one of his boys while in the act of "bating the ould woman."

The Umion and American calls upon its faction to "keep up the enthusia-m." Would n't it be better to get it up first?

"Let us proceed at once to examine the relation sustained by each section to the the country, and which has brought these lessensions—the main issue before which alothers should and will give way, until it is settled -EMANCIPATION AND EQUALITY OF RACES. ON one side; - PROTECTION BY THE UCION GOVERN MENT IN, OR PROTECTION OUT OF IT, on the other." - DAVID HUBBARD.

Pray tell us, Mr. HUBBARD, who made this issue, involving the destruction of this government, and the peace, prosperity and happiness of the people? Who are parties to it Who demand " Emancipation and Equality of Races ?" The Republicans you answer. Wh demand "Protection by the Union Government in or Protection out of it?" The Breckinridge Yancey democracy you answer, of course It can be no other party. The supporters o Mr. Douglas make no such demand. The ASTHMA, For the INSTANT RELIEF and Constitutional Union party scorn it. follows then that the issue upon which the late of the Union hangs, is an issue only between your party and the republicans. Les the people of Tennessee, particularly those democrats who desire the preservation of the Union, take warning, and shun the Brockin ridge-Yancey party.

CITY COUNCIL. BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

TUESDAY, July 10th. After the reading and adoption of the minutes of last meeting, the reports of the Treasurer, Collector, Recorder, Market House Clerk, and Sexton were presented and read. The Sexton's report showed the bil: of Mortality for the month of June to be 64 -43 whites and 21 blacks. Thirty-three were infants, nuder five years of age.

The bill to prevent the ringing of auction bells, or hand bells for auctioneers on the streets or side walks, passed third and last The bill to appropriate seven thousan same can be had at a greatly reduced price, And then the Board adjourned, the range of the the rmometer being too high to encour age legislation.

32 The Union and American chronicles under the head of "Straws," the accession of single man to its faction, and says : "From every portion of the State we hear of similar accessions to the National Democratic fold." Then, while it was bunting up materials for its small pile of straws, why did n't it tell us who these accessions are?

An old Democratic War-horse at Knoxville says: "Send two copies of your Campaign Union and American to the Breckinridge and Lane Club' bere. It should be read by every voter." - Union and American. Good beavens! We begin to tremble for the success of our party. NEW YORK, July 9. Mr. Breckinridge's acceptance of the nomination for the Presidency will be published o morrow. It is quite lengthy. He says he ias not sought nor desired to be placed beore the country for the office of President .-He then expresses approval of the action o the convention which nominated him, and ays it does not become him to shrink from the responsibility of that post to which he has been assigned. He holds to the doct ine f non-intervention by Congress or a Terriorial Legislature, either to establish or prodbit slavery in the Territories, and the plain luty of the Federal government when necessary to secure to the civizens of all the States the enjoyment of their property within the common Territories as every thing else withn their jurisdiction. He concludes by exressing the hope that the canvass may be conducted without rancor and that Divine Providence will continue to protect our beloved country from all danger both foreign

INTERESTING AND A LITTLE IMPORTANT .-Most unexpectedly to the Breckinridge men of Kentucky and no doubt to their very considerable const rnation, that very strong Democratic organ, the Birdstown Gazette. has raised the name of Douglas and Johnson to the top of its pole. The editor, in a long and temperate article, says that he has taken his stand after a good deal of calm considerat on and reflection. He believes, as every sensible and dispassionate man must believe, that the triumph of the Breckinridge party would lead to the destruction of the Union. There are now five Douglas papers in Kentucky, and they are all doing an earnest work .- Lou Jour.

Although our neighbor of the Courier after a good talk with Mr. Guthrie, his late candidate for the Presidency, exultingly proclaimed his own personal knowledge that Mr. G. pronounced the nomination of Donglas and Johnson a sectional one, he steadily recuses to tell us whether Mr. G. did not (as most assuredly he did) pronounce that of Breckingidge and Lane sectional too. Now how can the Courier, which justly prides itself upon its enterprise in giving early news. withhold from its readers a fact at once so interesting and important? -Lou. Jour.
